

McMeeken-Moore Names Joined In Nuptial Mass

Miss Mary Elizabeth Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Moore of 21021 Shearer ave., Keystone, became the bride of Lawrence E. McMeeken, U. S. Navy, at a Nuptial Mass last Saturday at Nativity Catholic church. The double ring ceremony was conducted by Rev. Patrick J. McGuinness, pastor of the church.

For her wedding day the bride selected a ballerina-length gown of white lace and white nylon net. The bouffant skirt was covered with tiers of nylon ruffles and the bodice of the gown was fashioned of white net with matching jacket. She wore a single strand of pearls. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a seed-pearl tiara.

She was given in marriage by her father.

Twin Gowns
Her sole attendant, Maid of Honor Miss Norman Barbero of Burbank, and the tiny flower girl, Miss Pamela Tancredi, were gowned alike in dresses of coral net with matching jackets and bonnets.

The groom, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. McMeeken of Greenville, Michigan, was attended by John W. Webster of Monterey Park. Both wore white jacketed tuxedos. Frederick Cameron and Francis Gately acted as altar boys.

Miss Shirley Moody played the wedding music and she and the bride's sisters, Kathleen and Sheila, and Patricia Provence and Dorothy Algame sang four appropriate selections.

Reception
The reception, held in the Parish Hall, was attended by friends and relatives from San Fernando Valley cities, Los Angeles, Monterey Park, and San Diego, as well as Torrance.

Following the reception the bride and groom left by automobile on their honeymoon to an undisclosed destination.

The bride is a graduate of St. Anthony's Girls High School in Long Beach. She has been employed for a year and a half at the Pacific Telephone company in Van Nuys.

Betrothal Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Ollie K. Hanna, of 1411 257th st., Harbor City, this week announced the engagement of their daughter Melba Louise to William Lee Stugart, of Compton.

The wedding will take place on Sunday, August 7, at 3 p.m., at the Western Avenue Baptist Church. A semi-formal wedding is planned.

Miss Hanna graduated from Narbonne High School in 1952 and continued her studies at Harbor Junior College. She is currently employed at Douglas Aircraft in Torrance.

The bridegroom-elect is the son of John Stugart Sr., of Loveland, Colo., and is employed at Glide-Easy Mfg. Co., in Hawthorne. He completed his schooling in Colorado.

THE LIVES of the best of us are spent in choosing between evils.—Junius.

Aquariumists Plan Lecture For Meeting

Dave Brown, of the Marineland of the Pacific, will be guest speaker when the Harbor Aquarium Society holds its regular meeting on Tuesday, July 26, at 7:30 p.m. at McMaster Hall, 174th St., and Yukon, according to Mrs. B. Hutchinson, press chairman.

Brown will illustrate his lecture on marine life with colored slides and motion pictures.

The meeting will be conducted by Vice-Pres. Conley Church, substituting for Pres. Charles Wade, who is on vacation. Mrs. Hutchinson said.

Show fish for the meeting will be live bearers, including gold fish and guppies. A five-gallon tank with hood will be the door prize, it was reported.

NOON WEDDING . . . The picturesque "Little Church of the Redwoods" in Mill Valley was scene of the recent wedding of Hal C. Laudeman of Torrance and Miss Janet Graham of Kentwood, California. They will make their home in Westwood. The groom is a graduate of Torrance High School, class of 1951.

Hal Laudeman Wed In Northern Nuptials

The picturesque "Little Church of the Redwoods" in Mill Valley, Calif., was the setting when Hal C. Laudeman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hal B. Laudeman of 1304 Greenwood ave., Torrance, claimed as his bride Miss Janet Graham, daughter of Mrs. Grace Graham of La Mirado.

The double-ring ceremony, held late in June, was officiated by Rev. Gordon Foster. The bride was given in marriage by her brother, John Graham of Los Angeles.

Westwood Home
Following a honeymoon trip to Carmel, the couple motored to Westwood, where they will make their home.

The young couple met at the University of Arizona. The bridegroom majored in art here and plans a career in apparel design. He will complete his education at UCLA in Westwood. A graduate of Torrance High School, class of 1951, he was active in student government, varsity sports and school clubs.

Pique Dress
For her wedding the bride selected a dress of white pique with a short, full skirt attached to a long torso waistline of all-over embroidery beaded with sea pearls. Her shell head-piece of the beaded fabric held her elbow-length illusion net veil. Her bouquet of white carnations was accented by a red carnation corsage.

For the wedding brunch served to 50 guests at the home of the bride's mother the house and patio were decorated with red and white carnations, red gerbera and white stock.
